Vedette Directory,

UTAH.

Area, 100,382 square miles—Population 30,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 11,000,) situate on the great highway westward, in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The city is one of the most beautiful in the Union and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of islands and Lake is peerlessly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and covering 280 blocks, of 10 acres each, (each divided into 8 Lots) and 4 public squares. Its level streets, running due east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties the towns of which range from 6,000 to 600 population.

FIRE DAMP IN A SILVER MINE.—A singular and quite serious accident occurred in the Gould & Curry mine at Virginia, Nev., recently. At a distance of 426 feet in the Bonner Shaft, a tunnel has been run 200 feet southwest, for the purpose of making a connection with another tunnel, which starts from what is known as the Old Engine Shaft, which has been sunk 200 feet from the Adit level in the old works of the mine. It has been expected to make the connection at any time for several days, but as the shaft and tunnel with which the connection was to be made contain a great deal of water, the workmen have been very cautious. On Sunday night from the abundance of water coming in, the miners thought the old shaft was very near, and quit work to inform the contractor. Upon returning, John Reed and George Hunter, with the contractor Rogers, and entering the tunnel for a distance of about 100 feet with lighted candles, there occured an explosion of gas or "fire damp," burning and injuring them all quite seriously. Reed was stunned very badly and is now in a dangerous condition. Hunter although quite badly hurt was not seriously injured. Rogers was thrown some distance and was rendered unconscious. Explosions of this character are quite frequent in coal mines, but this, we believe, is the first instance of "fire damp" occurring in any of our mines.

WIDE TIRE WAGONS.—The advantages of wide tire wagons, says an Eastern exchange, are not sufficiently appreciated. Every farmer who has tried one upon sandy roads or fields speaks highly in their favor, and they are equally valuable upon soft soil when it is not like that of the great prairies, where their fellows cut through the sod and sink half a foot below the surface. Upon some meadows, wheels with four inch tire run freely, while those with the ordinary width 12 inches cannot be used at all. Upon more than half the land and roads of the United States a wide tire wagon will run easier, heavily loaded, with two horses, than a narrow tire with three. It is then a saving of fifty per cent. Some turnpike companies allow wide tire wagons to pass for half toll, and, as a matter of public economy, every road district could afford to pay a premium to have all burden wagons made with tires four inches wide. —Sacramento Union.

SATURDAY MORNING, FEB. [illegible], 1866.

Mining Items Solicited

We respectfully request our friends, among those energetic pioneers of civilization—the miners, and others of Utah, and neighboring Territories, to send us items respecting the mines, and incidents of mining life, that we may be enabled to give an interesting summary, at least once a week, of the mineral resources, and mining prospects, of the future populous and prosperous States. It is our purpose to present an extended view of the whole field, from which so rich a harvest will be yet gathered, and to exert whatever influence we can to advance the true interest of every portion of it—No true interest of one locality can conflict with the worthy interest of another. There is a higher and more profitable law than selfishness, that should be made to govern over the common affairs of life. There is enough of promise in each of the new Territories to satisfy the ambition of its most ardent friends, and to insure the concentration of all needed capital, when the simple facts are known, and the seeming fabulous and exaggerated statements of mineral richness are reduced to the data of facts on which to found the desirable demonstration. With the daily accumulating evidence of untold millions awaiting development, in those vast mountain regions, the inhabitants can well afford to look without jealousy, upon the manifestations of undoubted prosperity, on localities outside of their own. The items purporting to be facts should be toned down as near to the truth as possible. To say nothing of its reprehensible ethics there is always an element of ultimate weakness and certain loss in exaggerated statement. We have enough of facts respecting the wealth of the mines, without resorting to fiction. Capital is always sure to go where there is safe and remunerative investment.

The California Miners' Convention.

Speaking of the sayings and doings of this deliberate assembly, as convened and adjourned sine die, at Sacramento, a few days ago, the Reese River Reveille remarks, in quite plain style, as follows:

The great Convention has met, and what did it accomplish? It occupied two days in doing something, part of which was to dispute whether petroleum was a vegetable or mineral production. The total result of their deliberation consists in a whereas, and a few resolutions declaring opposition to the sale of the mineral lands, or their taxation, or granting them to railroad companies. In their whereas, it is stated that since the discovery of the gold mines in California, the policy of the government has allowed a free and unrestricted occupation by the miners, subject only to their rules and regulations. This, they say, has been the cause of the great prosperity and thorough development of the country. What a mockery! It was the marvelous richness of the placers, their easy access, their every convenience of water, drainage and timber, and the unexampled loveliness and salubrity of climate, that made California prosperous; and that prosperity was not by any means attributable to the peculiar policy pursued. Now the State is in decay, with all its natural advantages and vast resources, and it is evident that some encouraging policy should be adopted in place of the insecure, no policy of the past. Their first resolution declares that a survey, lease, or sale of the mineral lands would be utterly ruinous to the mining communities. We would ask each and every man of that Convention if that assertion is not perfect bosh?

IDAHO ITEMS.—The Owybee Avalanche, of the 13th ult., has the following:

The diamond excitement in this section has partially subsided, but is not "played out" by any means. Some of the boys the other day had been reading in a work, that a pure diamond, when rubbed on a woolen cloth, would raise a friction sufficient to lift a hair. They made the experiment on several crystals they had, supposed to be diamonds, and in most cases it succeeded, many of the crystals lifting the hair, lode-stone-like, with ease.

J. A. Chittenden, Esq., has assayed bullion during the past week to the amount of over $9,000.

The weather the past two weeks has been as charming as can be found in any country—Italy included.

FOR "BLACKFOOT."—J. C. McDowell and P. W. McCarthey, old residents of Owybee, have "gone from our gaze," per Cayuse, "to that bourne from which" one in five hundred may return with a small fortune, and the remainder wiser if not poorer men.

The Boise City Statesman, of the 16th, says, "The Getzler troupe continue to draw good houses." It doesn't state where to—nor whether they're of adobe, frame or brick.

ONE WIFE IS ENOUGH.—It is proposed, now that slavery is at an end, to commence an onslaught upon Polygamy, as practiced among the Mormons. Even the United States officers in Utah are said to indulge openly in a plurality of wives! If this be so, it is another reason why steps should at once be taken to put an end to the disgraceful custom. One wife ought to be enough for any man, and to tolerate Polygamy is to bestialise humanity—to reduce it to the level of "the beasts of the field," instead of elevating it to the height but a "little lower than the angels," which belongs to its immortal nature.—N. Y. Sunday Times, Jan. 7th.

THE Governor of California, says a cotemporary, stands deservedly high; and yet the fact might be added that he is Low.

If Gov. Low (instead of Cole) had been a [illegible] Senator, they would have been high Low and the game.

"Governor" Young's Late "Message."

The meeting of the General Assembly of the mock "State of Deseret," and the Message of Brigham Young on the occasion, are certainly the most ridiculous farces ever acted on the political stage. I propose to make a few comments upon that remarkable document—of its no less remarkable author—"whom the Gods wish to destroy, they first make mad." He evidently begins to feel his grasp on power weaken, and it makes him "desperate." The "Will o' the Wisp" phantom of the gubernatorial office of an imaginary state, is followed by him with the avidity of a mono-maniac.

"Dream on, unconscious man, while yet thou mayst.
This blissful power is all thy soul shall ever taste!"

Time and experience, in place of conferring upon him wisdom, has only confirmed him in his follies, and added to his already abundant stock of arrogance. It is a maxim of the law, (and law is said by Coke to be the perfection of human reason,) that the presumption is always in favor of innocence. This maxim is founded in charity and is certainly very commendable in the law, in its application to criminals. There is a point in iniquity beyond which a man is placed without the scope of charity; a point beyond which God himself ceases to strive with man. Whether the author of the message, under consideration, has passed that point, let the facts which shall follow testify. A sensibility, deadened by a long persistence in wrong, deception and hypocrisy, can only be reached by putting its possessor to the torture.

The first and latter parts of the message are very well calculated to impress the author's unthinking adherents, with the idea of his (Brigham's) sincerity, honesty and patriotism. He puts on as much humility as Uriah Heap, and very meekly condescends to acknowledge the Supreme Being's goodness and loving kindness, and enjoins devotion to our country's interest. The reflecting mind is never misled by housetop manifestations.

"A man may smile and smile, and be a villain still." The darkest crimes against society have been committed under the cloak of religion and in the name of the Most High! And the deepest and most bloody schemes of treason, have been laid in the name of loyalty.

But few will be, or need be mislead by these high sounding professions. It will require acts to retrieve his lost reputation both for sincerity and patriotism.

This language is made use of in this message: "The question as to how long it will be proper for us to submit to thus have our constitutional rights and franchises withheld from us, is an important one; but we leave its solution to him who rules all things." Congress violated the constitutional right of this Territory, by refusing to admit the "State of Deseret" into the Union! The Constitution provides, that, "New States may be admitted by Congress into this Union." This language clearly leaves the admission of new States to the discretion of Congress, and in the exercise of that discretion Congress properly refuses to admit the State of Deseret and will continue to do so until the foul taint of polygamy is discarded by the people. This action of Congress, Brigham thinks is "unconstitutional," and the question of when the arm of resistence shall be raised against it is an important question, (of time,) but he very Christian-like leaves the decision of it to the Lord. It may be that he has had an intimation that a "revelation" of resistance will be made to him.

"A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself, but the simple pass on and are punished."

The following language further occurs in said "message," "if favors beget obligations, few indeed are the requirements that can be justly required at our hands."

This is remarkable language, coming from such a source. Have you forgotten that you are guilty of the crime of treason against the Government? that you levied war against her? that you actually opposed force to her army? Have you forgotten that the "breast works" which you erected in Echo Cañon, behind which to slaughter the United States soldiers, are still living witnesses of your treason? Have you forgotten that it is your wont to boast in your pulpit of the great cost which you put the Government to in the Utah expedition, and of the great fortunes which you and your people made out of it? Do you know, or have you forgotten, that there is no "statute of limitations?" Have you forgotten that you are a felon, and to day hold your life only by the sufferance of that Government whose favors you deride? Are you under no obligations to the Government for not requiring you to expiate your past crimes upon the scaffold? Have you so soon forgotten, that you have openly and notoriously violated the law against polygamy yourself, and encouraged others to do the same? that to-day you are out of prison through the clemency of the Government whose favor you ungratefully ignore?

EMIGRANT.

DOOMED.—The Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Herald, Jan. 11th, says:

A resolution was agreed to, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether any further legislation was necessary to suppress Polygamy in Utah. Now that slavery is out of the way, the attention of Congress and of the country will be given to the blotting out of the "twin relic of barbarism" that is cherished by the Latter Day Saints of Salt Lake City, and it will not be able long to maintain itself against such a combination of forces.

A NEW HOTEL IN ST. LOUIS.—The St. Louis correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

As if the Southern and Lindell Hotels were not enough in size and number, added to the others in operation, a proposition has been submitted to certain parties to erect a big hotel, large as the Lindell, on Fifth street, to be commenced in the spring.

The Galena (Ill.) Gazette states that the people of Warren county are using corn for fuel. The reason assigned is cheapness. Corn in the ear gives more heat than the same bulk of wood. Ear corn is worth ten cents per bushel and seventy bushels make a cord, worth seven dollars. A cord of wood costs nine dollars and a half, a difference of two dollars and a half in favor of the corn, with the increased heating power thrown in.

MONTANA NEWS.—The Virginia City Democrat of the 24th, speaking of the weather, says:

Since last Sunday, we have had real spring weather here in Virginia. As we write, the sun is shining warm and the snow is melting rapidly away—the streets are beginning to be sloppy and muddy. We regret to learn that it is very cold at Helena, and that snow fell there to the depth of two feet.

The talented Acting Governor Meagher delivered a lecture on "The Penalties of Public Life: Its duties and Rewards," before the Y. M. Literary Association of Virginia, on the evening of the 15th. It is published in the Democrat, and abounds in passages of great brilliancy and beauty.

Major Bruce has (not wilfully, we trust,) termed the Salt Lake papers "eastern," when he apologizes thusly:

No Eastern papers have been received this week; hence no telegraphic report can be published.

The Virginia Post, of the 20th, comes crowded with news and items, conveyed in solid columns of new style nonpareil, making the Post the prettiest weekly paper in the western country. Referring to the weather, it gives a somewhat contrary idea of the Montana climate, to that quoted in the above:

The weather has again changed, and that so rapidly that a stranger would imagine himself transplanted into another region and a different climate. On Wednesday, it was showing symptoms of mud; Thursday morning found the streets as hard as a road agent's heart, and a blue, frosty mist hung in the air.

The Helena Radiator, of the 20th, says:

Oliver & Co.'s coach arrived about two o'clock p. m., yesterday, bringing a heavy U. S. mail. They were four days on the road from Virginia City, and were obliged to attach six horses to the coach to draw it through the deep snow.

Reports have been in circulation on the streets that quite a number of persons had been frozen to death, and a large number of limbs amputated, during the recent cold weather, which we are inclined to doubt, as the surgeons say they have performed no amputations, and we have not seen disengaged limbs lying about the streets in any considerable quantity.

THIS, THAT AND THE OTHER.—George Francis Train is in Omaha erecting cottages to rent to immigrants, and expects to make a fortune.—Baring, the London banker, is to be made a peer.—The Baltimore American sharply criticises the recent editorial "tom-foolery" in Richmond, and advises the erection of a set of stocks and a whipping post for such of the fraternity as go about gunning for each other.—General Scott had a brilliant reception at Key West on New Year's day. His health has very much improved.—At the funeral of King Leopold, Queen Victoria was represented by Lord Sidney and five generals of the English army. The Prince of Wales and Prince Alfred were also present.—The Richmond reporters who were recently garroted desire it to be understood that the ten cents of which they were robbed was specie.—George Peabody, the London banker, is to erect a new church edifice in Georgetown, Mass., to accommodate the church and society lately formed in that place, to sustain the faith of their fathers, in opposition to the new divinity introduced there by Rev. Charles Beecher.—The rebel Major General Lowry has turned preacher, and has two Baptist churches in Mississippi.—Senator Sumner has written an obituary of Henry Winter Davis for publication in New York.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.

Sergeant Annemacher, of the First U. S. Cavalry, has procured five hundred dollars on forged accounts. He was regimental clerk, had seen much service, and bore a good character previously. There is a woman in the affair this time, however.

Two firemen were hurt while racing to the fire at 3 o'clock this morning. They fell, and the Tiger steam engine ran over them. One, a hackman, nicknamed "Bones," had an arm and leg broken, and the other sustained severe internal injuries. The racing companies were the Tiger, No. 14, and Liberty Hose Company, No. 2.

In the case of McCarthy vs. Clayes, the motion of plaintiff for a change of venue to Sacramento was denied.

An attempt was made early this morning to burn the Oriental Hotel, which failed. Rags and kerosene were scattered all over the house.

NEWS ITEMS.—Drafting has been commenced in Mexico. Exemptions cost $400.—A benefit for Stonewall Jackson's widow was lately given in a Mobile theatre.—The Queen of England has had a private fortune of a quarter of a million pounds left her by a Mr. Neels.—It is said that diamonds have been found in Idaho, but the discoverer has been drowned, and with him his secret perished.—The present wealth of the British Islands is estimated at thirty-six thousand million of dollars.—The Mississippi Legislature has passed a bill fining any white person twenty dollars, and any colored one fifty, for an act of miscegenation.

EXONERATED.—We observe by yesterday's Sacramento Union that W. L. Urtick, who was accused of complicity in forging soldier bounty papers, has been relieved of the charge by a Mr. Pomeroy, who publishes a letter in that journal explaining the transaction. As we made our statement from the Union, we also give the correction from the same journal.

The Daily Union Vedette.

Local and Miscellaneous.

Interesting matter on every page.

Hogs are bringing 8c. per lb. in St. Joseph.

The wires were indisposed, all yesterday, hence no telegrams this morning.

A man once Lord Mayor of London is said to be now a pauper in that city.

Job-work of all descriptions, executed in the highest style of the art at this office. Send along your orders.

To reach the masses and the miners of Utah, Idaho, Montana and Colorado, advertise in the Vedette.

Nine hundred pounds in bank notes were found sewed up in the waistcoat of Tom Sayers after his death.

A great grand-daughter of Mrs. Siddons has made her debut on the stage at the Nottingham (Eng.) Theatre.

A wife's toast for the tea table—"My husband; may he never be tight, but tight or straight my husband."

Science does more for the brute than the man. Pigs, attacked by the most fatal disorders, are frequently cured after death.

An ex-Empress died in Philadelphia a few days ago. It was Madame Huate de Iturbide, widow of the former Emperor of Mexico.

A Washington letter says it is like pulling teeth, this depriving of rank, pay and emoluments, those Generals who have influence at the War Department.

Theatre At Camp.—The merry melodrama of the "Idiot Witness," and the frolicking farce entitled "The Fool of the Family," are on the bills for the Camp Theatre to-night.

A correspondent of the Stockton, Cal. Herald avers that, according to Langley's Directory, there is in San Francisco one "dead-fall," "slop shop" or "rum-mill" to every eight buildings in the city, and in more than half of them a stranger would get "shanghied" in the first glass.

The Restoration Policy.—Thanks to Hon. Wm. M. Stewart, United States Senator from Nevada, for a pamphlet copy of his late celebrated speech, indorsing the President's policy on Restoration, delivered in the Senate of the United States, Dec. 21st 1865.

Mrs. Maximilian, of Mexico, recently reviewed the Mexican troops in a carriage that cost forty thousand dollars. It was constructed entirely of glass and silver, and the inside was lined with satin and gold lace. She's expensive to somebody.

Money.—Money goes, no one knows where it goeth, no one showeth; here and there, everywhere; in and out, round about; run, ran, run, dun, dun, spend, spend, lend, lend; flush to day, short tomorrow, notes to pay, borrow; so it goes, no one knows, where it goeth, no one showeth.

The first number of the Detroit Post is expected to be issued about the 1st of March, with a capital of about $200.000. Capt. E. B. Ward, the great steamboat-man, is the largest shareholder. J. M. Howard, Hon. W. A. Howard, and Senator Chandler, are among the heavy stockholders.

Major-General Dodge.—We understand, from Gen. Connor, that Major-General Dodge is not mustered out of service, as stated in a clipping yesterday. The Order, mustering him out, has been revoked. We heartily rejoice at this, as, we know, do every officer and soldier in this District.

Bashfulness and Barbarism.—In their schoolboy days, nothing was so dreaded by many of these "men of Utah" as to be punished by sitting between two girls. But now, the "force of habit," heathenism or brutalism, as the case may be, has so changed the course of things that they can cohabit with a dozen of 'em and not show a blush of shame!

Correction.—Instead of a "public installation of officers," for Mt. Moriah Lodge, U. D., F. and A. Masons, at Independence Hall, next Monday night, (as the item was incorrectly contributed to these columns,) it will be, technically, a public organization only; the officers already holding their commissions, from the Grand Master of the State of Nevada.

More Monopoly.—The five or six Aldermen, under the firm name and style of the "City," succeeded, through their jury, to fine Mr. West, janitor or clerk of the "Great Billiard Club," a hundred dollars and the "costs," at that trial which lasted during the last two days. The case was appealed, of course, to an authorized or competent (superior) court. Mr. Mastin was entirely relieved, no evidence appearing against him. Messrs. Hempstead and Thurmond, counsel for the defence, gave and will give Mr. Monopoly a mighty lively turn.

[illegible] Fenian Meeting [illegible] hour to-morrow morning and evening, at Independence Hall [illegible] Camp Douglas [illegible] public always [illegible].

Puck, the San Francisco comic paper, cites the late earthquake in that city as a proof that "the world wags." The same paper comes out for the Fenians in this wise:

PITY PAT.

Puck wears the green upon his breast,
The Shamrock in his hat,
And when he thinks of Ireland's woes,
His heart goes pity Pat!

Student.—"What is the difference between a square foot and a foot square?" There is no difference. Between two or more square feet and feet square there is a serious difference, however. Four square feet, for instance, is the area of a board that is two feet long and two feet wide, but a board four feet square is four feet long and four feet wide, and contains sixteen square feet.

A Literary Crowd.—Henry Villard, late war correspondent of the New York Tribune, and formerly correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, from Denver and the Pike's Peak country, was lately married to the only daughter of William Lloyd Garrison. Geo. Wm. Smalley, one of the editors of the Tribune was wedded some time since to the daughter of Wendell Phillips; and two more of the editorial attaches of that paper are reported to be engaged to daughters of Henry Ward Beecher and the Rev. Dr. Cheever.

California Wine.—With the liberality that is wont to prompt his "Irish-American" heart, our friend McGinley, of the popular "Antelope Restaurant," regaled our office boys, yesterday morning, with a sample phial of Los Angeles wine, fit for the gods of old. It is part of a private case or two that was sent to him from one of his amigos in the south-west. Success to the "Antelope," y a su mejor doma de la casa, Señor McGinley; y para el vino de pais, tambien!

The Fenian Cause.—The friends and fellow workers of the Fenian Brotherhood cause, are showing themselves alive and and enterprising in this city as in towns of territories adjoining. They have established an elegant Lodge Room, up stairs on the corner of State Road and Telegraph Streets, where, weekly, for the future meetings will be held for the good cause—of independence and nationality. The society's card appears to day, with Mr. P. H. Munday, Centre, and Mr. J. H. Ingersoll, as Secretary. God speed them, till they make old Erin, as she ought to be,

"Great, glorious and free,
First flower of the earth, and first gem of the sea."

Naturalizing 'em.—In every Ward meeting-house, last Thursday night, the "bishops" and the big "runners" held a private caucus, counseling the folks to get out their "naturalization" papers, and prepare for the coming City Election, both of which was something near to them. Bishop Woolley wanted 'em to skin their eyes and be alert, inasmuch as, (he said,) the "Gentiles" were going to play 'em a lively string, on City election day; hence, that they had better "naturalize," for formality sake! This thing takes place right soon; but of it and the "situation", more anon.

We recommend that at an early day, there be a "Gentile" convention called, in Salt Lake City, to nominate City Officers!

The members and attaches of the Idaho Legislature are in a bad way. They cannot draw their pay. The World says: The members and attaches are entitled to a compensation from the Territory, and out of the Congressional appropriations. Thus far they have not received one cent—and why? The law clearly provides that they shall draw their salaries weekly—but by the failure of the Territorial Secretary to file his bond with the Department at Washington, there is not a dollar here to pay the members with. As I stated before, three appropriations have been made by Congress for Legislative and other purposes—each for $20,000. The first was drawn by Secretary Smith, and a portion of it paid out last spring. Smith died very suddenly, and about $9,000 of the money remains unaccounted for. The last two appropriations, amounting to $40,000, together with the balance of $2,000 of the first now lying at Oregon City, Oregon, waiting orders from this Territory, all ought to have been here long ago, ready to meet the current expenses of the Legislature; but by the neglect of Mr. Gilson to make out his official bond until about two weeks ago, no money can be drawn from that source.

I hear the dry-voiced insects call,
And "Come," they say, "the night grows brief!"
I hear the dewdrops pattering fall,
From leaf to leaf—from leaf to leaf.
Your shadow, love—your shadow, love!
The roses in the night-wind sway,
I long for you—I long for you!
But you are in the land of dreams;
Your eyes are closed, [illegible] breath
So faintly comes, [illegible]
Almost like death—almost like death.

Notice,

IS hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Elbridge Gurney and David T. Beals, under the name and style of Gurney & Co., became disolved on the 29th day of October, 1865, by the death of Mr. Elbridge Gurney, one of the members of said firm—the business of said firm at Nevada and Helena, in the Territory of Montana; at Great Salt Lake City, in the Territory of Utah; and at Idaho City, in the Territory of Idaho, is discontinued. No contracts entered into in the territories aforesaid at any time hereafter in the name of, and for the old or new firm, will be valid unless made with our Agent, F. C. BROWN or with the undersigned. All persons having claims against the said firm, will present them at our house for payment.

I shall continue the business in which the late firm was engaged, at Virginia city, Montana and shall supply part of our successors in the house ... discontinued, with our goods as before. The style of the new firm will continue to be Gurney & Co.
